

International Quidditch Association Membership Report (2019-2020)

International Quidditch Association (IQA) Membership Report Summary

The IQA is made up of 38 member organizations working in partnership from around the world. The National Governing Bodies (NGB) that make up the IQA are filled with a diversity of players, teams, fans, and volunteers. The membership department helps keep track of the active participation within the quidditch community. This includes tracking the number of active players, teams, referees, and other volunteers within the member organizations. This information helps the IQA better connect our member NGBs in a variety of ways.

IQA Affiliated National Governing Bodies

These organizations are the representatives that make up the IQA and together form the Assembly of Members. The Assembly of Members is the governing body that guides the direction of the IQA through NGB communication and voting. Each IQA Full Member NGB receives one vote in the Assembly of Members. Observation abilities are allowed to IQA Associate Members as well. These NGBs are categorized within the IQA based on their membership status.

IQA Areas of Interest

The IQA has been approached by a group seeking to build a National Governing Body within Bolivia. Thanks to the leadership and outreach of existing IQA member NGB's there is a new Area of Interest for the IQA. Outreach will continue between the IQA and NGB's in hopes of establishing a Bolivian IQA Associate Member NGB, Quidditch Indi has lost their status as an IQA Area of Interest representing India. After difficulties coordinating international play and inability to establish gameplay within the country. There is now the opportunity for another group to attempt to establish an Area of Interest or Associate Member.
